

DANVILLE WINS DOUBLE-HEADER

By Defeating Roanoke, Strengthens Hold on Second Place.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., June 7.—In two of the most exciting games of the season Danville took both ends of a double-header here this afternoon before an enthusiastic gathering of fans, winning the first by the score of 7 to 5, and taking the second, in a game replete with hits, by the score of 10 to 9. Most all the pitchers used in the contest seemed to have had an off day, and were driven from the box, eight pitchers being used in both games. In the last game in the seventh inning Shaughnessy replaced Pritchard with Holland, who came in from left field, and in the ninth Griffin sent in Fanelli, to relieve Wolf. Fanelli retired the side without the least sign of a hit. By taking both games to-day Danville secured a tighter hold on second place. The score:

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

If the press dispatches in regard to the game yesterday, which was forfeited by Richmond to Norfolk on account of the dilatory tactics employed by the Colts, be true, then the Colts should be spanked and sent to bed without any supper. Such childishness, which would be humorous in a grammar school team, is absolutely without excuse in a team of men who are paid salaries to play baseball.

Baseball is a sport, and the chief attraction about it is that it is generally played in a sportsmanlike manner. The rules make it hard for crookedness to get in, and in most cases the players work for the honor of the team as well as their salaries. Yesterday's exhibition was most sportsmanlike, and it is calculated to injure the game about as much as anything the players could devise.

The Richmond public does not want a team to represent the city in baseball that childish lay down after the first inning because the opponents happened to practically win the game in that inning. The majority of the fans would prefer a straight-out-and-out defeat, with every player going the best he could and fighting to the finish. Yesterday there was no hard playing. There was nothing to the game except an attempt to escape a defeat on a technicality. The Colts thought if they could delay the game so that the rain would come before the fifth inning they would escape defeat. They suffered worse than defeat.

After yesterday's exhibition it would seem as if the Colts needed a manager. Tom Messitt is one of the leading catchers in the league behind the bat. He is a good player through and through and a valuable man on the Richmond team. It would seem, however, that Messitt is too easy with the Colts. It would also seem that the Colts need something more than a curb bit.

Yesterday morning a Norfolk paper published a short story to the effect that the Colts had behaved very badly in the game the day before and taunted the Richmonders with it. The writer, however, struck a true note when he stated that he did not believe the Richmond fans wanted a rowdy team, and that they would kick on the exhibition in Norfolk. That is true, and the fans will very soon show the Colts what they want if they attempt to browbeat or overrun any umpire in Richmond.

Umpire Davis had the right to forfeit the game to Norfolk if what the
